

Huge (M, solo, size)

Adapted from a story written by Lee (pfieffer@pacbell.net)

Black is beautiful, but big is even better.

I lit the candle, completing the pentagram. Surrounded by images and fetishes of my desire I knelt and began to chant. Massive dildos, photos of gigantic human erections and testicles and handmade clay dolls with outrageously massive genitalia all stared at me as I dipped my hand into the cauldron and took out a scoop of white cream. I spread it all over my 6" cock and average size balls. It tingled as it was quickly absorbed. Continuing my chant, I began to stroke myself. Getting up, I knelt over the caldron and lowered myself until my balls were resting in the bowl.

I continued to stroke myself; rubbing in more and more of the cream, chanting and slowly I felt an electric tingling in my crotch. I continued to pull and stroke as I felt my cock grow and thicken in my hands. My balls felt heavier and heavier and they too grew and dropped lower and lower into the cream. Within a few moments, my cock was too long and thick for my hands to do an adequate job, so I grabbed myself with both hands and continued on.

Soon, I could hold back no longer and my chant stopped as I screamed in sheer ecstasy and insane torrents of splooge flew out of my dick. All of the candles went out, extinguished by wet strings of my incredible load. For five minutes I moaned and screamed my release, until, finally I recovered enough to get up and collapse on the cot in the corner.

I woke up 24 hours later. Strong magic is always draining. I looked down my body and gazed in wonder at what I had created. My cock was limp, lying up from my crotch, stretching past my belly button, past my sternum to where the massive head lay between my nipples. I could see the huge twin orbs of my balls, each one the size of a soccer ball. I grabbed the tape measure I had by the bed just for this purpose and wrapped it around my shaft...13 inches.... then up from my balls along the length to where the grotesquely fat head lay...24 inches. My god!

I sat up to get at my balls to see how big they had become and groaned at the incredible feeling of my 4 inch thick, two foot long cock falling off my chest, over my thigh and down, hanging barely off the floor like a huge snake.

My legs couldn't come together with the humongous mass of my ballsac between them. Both testicles measured a full foot across each, held in a pillowcase-sized bag. I turned my body, to hang my feet off the edge of the cot to get up and almost screamed as I moved my body over my left nut.

I realized I was going to need to learn a new way to move with this mass between my legs...but hey, I'd live with it, it's what I wanted after all! I sat on the edge of the cot and marveled at what my magic had wrought. My balls easily hung the foot from my crotch to the floor, sitting in heavy, twin orbs filled with (if the tome I had read was correct) dozens of spurts of cum in a volume best measured in quarts.

My cock was even more amazing, falling in front of my thick, wrinkled scrotum, sliding out over my balls, and the bulbous head resting on the ground between my feet. The head was a mutant! I mean, granted my limp cock was two feet long, and over a foot around limp, but my cockhead was horrendously oversized even for that. It was easily twice as thick as the shaft. The head was perfectly shaped, only about 8 inches across and about the same long... and yes, that meant the head was a full third of my limp pecker.

I leaned forward and wrapped both hands around the shaft just behind the head and pulled it up my dick to look at the huge head face-on; when I pulled it up, I found out that it reached almost the full length from the crotch to my nose (while sitting) and with little pulling could stretch past my face. I gazed at the honeydew melon size head I held at eye level. The hole was huge, the slit even larger; it looked almost like an asshole with my piss-hole being the hole. I slowly lowered my cock back down, amazed at what my magic had created.

I stood up and my balls swung down and banged against my knees. My cock swung, all 24 inch long, 4 inch thick, inhuman man-mass past my knees. The weight was incredible! It was a good thing the spell also gave me the proper internal support or this would be bad...as it was, it was highly erotic. My balls must have weighed over 20 pounds between the two of them, it felt like somebody tugging on my balls, only across my whole crotch area, and my cock was pulling with its own mass. I waddled over to the full-length mirror and gazed at myself. The mere sight of my monstrosity, coupled with the incredible feel of it tugging between my legs caused blood to start to pump and my cock grew hard.

It was like watching a huge, hot air balloon inflate. Thick blue veins, the width of a finger puffed up as blood poured into my shaft. I thickened and my cock began to lengthen and pick up. I felt the muscles holding my balls up contract and my mighty orbs shifted, making my dick swell even faster. As the head raced towards the floor, growing ever fatter and bigger, the shaft began to lift, getting harder and harder, now 28 inches long, and 5 inches thick, sticking down at 45 degrees, now 32 inches, 5.5 inches thick, and sticking almost straight out, and it continues to grow!

I moan as I watch my immense dong get even larger and thicker, beyond anything I'd ever imagined! Now a yard long, and it continues to get harder and longer. I'm sticking straight out now, and precum beings to flow as my pisshole open to the size of my pinkie and the clear, slippery fluid bubbles and drips in long, thick streams to puddle three feet away from my body. Even bigger I grow, I can't believe it...this is bigger than I had planned! How big!? The upward curve I had when I was average sized now appeared, and the ultra-rigid hard-on I'd always had came as I continue to grow and swell. 36 inches, 40 inches, the head had swelled along with everything else, now an insane foot across and a foot long, with precum running out like a leaky faucet...the puddle between my legs now a foot across and growing.

Eventually I felt myself reach full hardness, and between my legs was a cock beyond anything....well, beyond anything. 44 inches long (just under 4 feet), 7 inches across (exactly 2 feet around), and a head that took up the last 14 inches of my cock, and was twice the width of my already massive pecker...14 inches across, almost a yard around, bloated and fat, red and purple, a fat coronal ridge, that oh-so sensitive triangle beneath the head the size of the palm of my hand. Precum flowed from he thumb sized hole, down the horrendous gash to pool and soak the carpet below. My balls had swelled with my erection to the size of basketballs, perfectly sized beneath the insane mass of my cock.

Now all I had to do is find a woman who could appreciate my new equipment. I knew just the woman too...
