

Jacking Off My Boyfriend by Cynthia Burkholtz (Phoenix AZ)

I became interested in the male anatomy in middle school when my boyfriends wanted to go all the way. I started giving them hand jobs because I didn't want to take the chance of having intercourse and maybe getting pregnant.

After I started giving them hand jobs it didn't take long before I went to the next step. I used to think sucking off a boy was sort of dirty, but when my boyfriend insisted that I do it to him I tried it and liked it. Up to then I liked to feel his dick in my hand and swish is sticky come up and down his smooth shaft with the palm of my hand after he'd come, now I almost always swallow it.

I especially wish I had a dick of my own. I can tell how much he likes it when I play with it and I just know that it must feel good to him. I'm always molesting him, although I know he doesn't mind. I just like the feel of his big long dick in my hand, and the smell of his come when he spurts. It's such a turn on for me to see his face all twisted in passion as I jerk him off.

When I suck him off it really makes me hot. That's the best, watching him watch me with that look of primal excitement on his face just before he blows his load. It gives me this huge feeling of control to tease him, to delay his satisfaction.

But in the end I want it just as badly as he does. I want to see him shoot his come all over the place and then I just have to lick him clean. To know that I made him do that is a real high for me.

I know some of you might think I'm a slut for doing these kinds of things, but I'm not really, I only suck and jack off my boyfriends, not guys that I'm not going with.

Besides it's really good for my complexion. :-)
